

Zainah Khan
Nice to Meet You

Interview Used

- What is your title?
Amanda is a full time Software Engineer at Pearson Education and a part time Adjunct Online Facilitator for ITT Technical Institute.
- How long have you worked here?
She has worked there for 4 years.
- What made you want to do this specific job?
She took a computer class in high school that asked her to update the school website. Since then she was inspired to see what else was possible.
- What education did you obtain to be a candidate for this job?
She attended IUPUI and obtained her B.S in Computer Technology and went on to receive a M.S in Management from Indiana Wesleyan University
- What other skills did you need to have been considered for this job?
Learning how to fail and asking prospective questions.
- What is the best part about working in your role?
There is never a shortage of jobs in the IT field and she is always hearing about new opportunities.
- What is something that you found out or have to do that you did not expect about this role?
There are times where you will be expected to do a task and you will fail. The most important part is learning from it.
- Are there opportunities for advancement in this role?
Yes, she claims she sees many opportunities arise in her field and in her role.
- What do you see for your career in 10 years?
She wants to work with a company that comes up with solutions to businesses Through software.
- What advice would you give me that I could start doing now to eventually get this dream job?
Stick with it and talk to other developers in the field.